Get Organized After the Holidays
with Professional Organizer Corina Torrey

2 Separate Workshops:

Organizing 101: How to Organize Your
Space, Your Time and Your Life

Thursday, January 14, 6:30 PM

Learn a 5 step process that will take you from a state of clutter and chaos to a state of order and functionality. Define being organized and discuss reasons for getting organized. Identify ways to start getting organized including reviewing the SPACE process. Leave knowing examples for organizing space, information, time, and life in general.

Resolve to Get A Handle on All That Paper!

Thursday, January 21, 6:30 PM

We will identify and discuss challenges with paper and introduce and discuss the SPACE process. Discussions will include document retention, storage/container options and getting started with paper management.

*It is recommended that attendees bring a notebook and pencil.
There will be no handouts but the presentation can be emailed upon request.*

Corina Torrey started her business as a Professional Organizer in 2013. She is a member of the NAPO (National Association of Professional Organizers)

Calling for Cake Pans!

The Library would like to start a collection of cake pans to lend, and we need your help! If you have a collection of interesting shapes and sizes that you don't use, but just can't throw away, consider donating them to the library! Call or stop in if you have questions.
